Annual OEMA Conference

Join us at our conference, located in different counties across the state each year.

The OEMA annual conference is widely regarded as the leading conference that brings emergency management, law enforcement, fire, and business continuity practitioners together under one roof.

It is a great opportunity to connect with other like-minded professionals for networking and problem solving.

Find out more at www.oregonemergency.com under the Conference tab.

The Association promotes life saving and damage reducing efforts of Oregon's communities for all natural and human caused hazards through continuously improving mitigation, preparedness, readiness, response, and recovery capabilities.
